Teachers Feedback Analysis & Action Taken Report 2022-2023

The graph illustrates the feedback of teachers about the curriculum in the academic year 2022- 2023. Majority of the teachers are satisfied with the present curriculum. A few responded that the curriculum does not maintain a proper balance between theory and its application and other few have indicated their dissatisfaction with the lack of time in the completion of the syllabus. All the faculties are supporting the statement that the syllabus is suitable to the course. Most of the teachers are satisfied with the ICT facilities provided within the class by the institution.

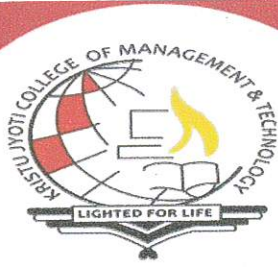

Suggestions

- It is better, if the learning outcomes are clearly defined for the students.
- Syllabus of some courses is really vast and its timely completion is really hectic for the faculties.
- There should be a proper balance between theory and its application.
- The difficult concepts were illustrated with more effort, so that slow as well as advanced learners can gain from the lectures.
