Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) 2021 – 2022

The Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) is a mandatory body that every educational institution in India, including colleges, must establish as per the guidelines of the University Grants Commission (UGC) and the Supreme Court of India. The ICC of the college is responsible for dealing with complaints of sexual harassment made by students, faculty members, or staff members.

The main objective of the ICC is to create a safe and inclusive environment in the college, to prevent sexual harassment, and to provide a platform for individuals to report any incidents of sexual harassment. The committee is also responsible for investigating the complaints and taking appropriate action against the perpetrator.

The ICC is comprised of members who have knowledge of the legal provisions related to sexual harassment. The ICC follows a specific process for handling complaints, which includes receiving the complaint, conducting an inquiry, and submitting a report of the findings to the college authorities. The committee also ensures the confidentiality of the complainant and the witnesses throughout the investigation process.

Objectives

- Prevention of Sexual Harassment: The primary objective of the ICC is to prevent sexual harassment in the college and create a safe and inclusive environment for all individuals associated with the college.
- Addressing Complaints: The ICC is responsible for addressing complaints related to sexual harassment made by students, faculty members, or staff members. The committee ensures that the complaints are addressed in a timely and efficient manner and that the complainant's confidentiality is maintained throughout the investigation process.
- Providing Support to the Complainant: The ICC provides support and guidance to the complainant throughout the investigation process. The committee ensures that the complainant is not victimized or discriminated against in any manner and that their rights are protected.

- Conducting Inquiries: The ICC is responsible for conducting inquiries into complaints of sexual harassment. The committee investigates the matter, collects evidence, and submits a report of the findings to the college authorities.
- Disciplinary Action: The ICC is responsible for recommending disciplinary action against the perpetrator of sexual harassment, depending on the severity of the offence.
- Awareness: The ICC conducts awareness programs and workshops to create awareness about sexual harassment and the legal provisions related to it. The committee also educates individuals about the process of filing a complaint and the support available to them.

Overall, the ICC plays a crucial role in preventing sexual harassment, providing support to the complainant, and ensuring that the college environment is safe and inclusive for all individuals associated with the college.

RAISE YOUR VOICE

A street play titled "Raise Your Voice" was organized by the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) against sexual harassment on March 15, 2022 to raise awareness about sexual harassment and promote a safe and inclusive environment for everyone. The play was performed by a team of student actors and was open to all students, faculty, and staff members of the institution.

The play focused on various forms of sexual harassment, including physical, verbal, and psychological, and highlighted the importance of speaking out against such incidents. The play also emphasized the role of bystanders in preventing sexual harassment and promoting a safe and inclusive environment for everyone.

The street play was performed in an open area of the institution and was designed to be interactive and engaging. The actors used different props and costumes to portray different characters and scenarios, and the audience was encouraged to participate in the play by responding to the actors' prompts and questions.

The street play was received positively by the audience, who appreciated the creative approach to raising awareness about sexual harassment. They found the play to be informative and thought-provoking and were impressed by the students' performances. Many of them expressed their commitment to promoting a safe and inclusive environment for everyone and pledged to speak out against sexual harassment.
