Report	An Orientation Program was conducted by the Code of Conduct or Ethic Cell in order to remind the faculty members of the institution about the values enshrined in our institution. It is implemented to ensure the dignity and integrity of teaching profession. By inculcating the set of values it was aimed for the upliftment of the students community by attaining academic and non-academic excellence of the same. The orientation keynote address was given by the Principal by reminding the teachers that they should constantly be the best ethical example possible by following the morale in their realm of teaching. As a teacher is engaged in the most morally demanding profession they are reminded about their duty towards their fellow wards.
